No 622.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from France.

LETTERS of the 28th ult. O. S. from Rome, affirm for a Certainty, that the Terms of an Accommodation between that Court and Spain are settled: But upon this Occasion they give out a Circumstance, which seems to stand in as much need of being explain'd as confirm'd, tho' 'tis mentioned in all their Publick News Letters. The Paragraph is worded thus; 'Tis certain, that Cardinal Acquaviva has obtained a Brief from the Pope, and that the same is sent to the King of Spain, whereby his Holiness removes any Scruples which His Catholic Majesty may have with Regard to the Government of his Kingdoms, of which he exhorts him to continue the Exercise.' The Publick at Rome are the more impatient to know the Terms of the said Accommodation, because they are assured, that the Catholick King persists in his Resolution, to diminish the Number of Religious Houses in his Dominions.

'Tis added, that the good Understanding between the Emperor and the King of Spain increases every Day, and that the former has obtained of the latter, that the Sequestration shall be taken off, which was laid in the Beginning of the late War, upon the Ecclesiastical and Temporal Estates which belonged to the Subjects of the House of Austria, and those of the Empire, in the Kingdoms of Naples and Sicily.

According to Letters of May 27, O. S. from Leghorn, the Corsican Malecontents have frequent Quarrels, which commonly end in Blows, and sometimes in Murders; but tho' 'tis suspected that these are fomented by Persons among them, who are under the Genoese Pay to sow Divisions in the Island, yet 'tis observed, that whatever are their Private or Personal Animositities, they seem to forget them, and to be reconciled, when their Liberties and the Good of the Publick, are the Points in Question.

There is an Account from Milan, of the 1st Inst. which seems of such an extraordinary Nature, that 'tis very difficult to know what to make of it. It is advised, they say, in several Letters from Turin, that 6000 Men of French Troops are arrived at Fenestrelles, on the Frontiers of Dauphiny, who are to be followed by a much larger Body, and that the King of Sardinia is also preparing to put his Troops in Motion.

Letters of the 4th Instant from Vienna say, that the Emperor not thinking it prudent to leave his Dominions in Italy too naked, has countermanded the March of two Regiments of Foot, which were coming from that Country to Hungary, and ordered that at least 15000 Men be continued there.

Letters of the 9th Instant from Ratisbon say, that a Writing is published there, in Favour of the King of Prussia's Claim to the Succession of Berg and Juliers, importing, 'That the Rights of the Royal Family of Prussia, to succeed to the said Duchies, after the Extinction of the Male Branch of the Palatine Family of Neubourg, are so well founded, that not only the Dignity of his Family requires they should be maintained by all the Methods possible; but also that the Emperor, the Empire, and all the Guarantees of the Treaty of Westphalia, are obliged to defend and support his Prussian Majesty, against all that shall offer to molest him in the Enjoyment of the said Rights.'

Those of the 10th from Hanover confirm, that the Differences between the Courts of England and Prussia are perfectly accommodated; and 'tis reported that a Cartel will shortly be settled between the two Courts. To this happy Disposition to a mutual good Understanding, is owing the granting of Passage, without any Scruple, to the Prussian Troops thro' Lunenburg, in their Way to Duysbourg. And tho' the Baron de Bork, the Prussian Envoy Extraordinary at this Court, is returned to Berlin, 'tis thought he will be succeeded by the Count de Degenfeldt, who resided here with great Esteem, some Years ago, and is now the Prussian Minister at Francfort.

It is advised by Letters of the 12th from Francfort, that the Margrave of Baden-Dourlach, was lately seized with a Fit of an Apoplexy as he was at Table, for which he was immediately blooded; and tho' he thereby soon recovered his Senses, yet all his Left Side is struck with a Palsey. 'Tis added, that there have been several Earthquakes in the Duchy of Wirtemberg, in the Countries of Baden and Dourlach, and in the Black Forest, which have been very alarming but not mischievous.

Letters from Bayonne say, that on the 31st ult. O. S. the New Colours of the Regiment of Chartres, were borne by the Officers to the Cathedral, and there blest by the Bishop, accompany'd by all his Chapter. Before the Ceremony, the Bishop pronounc'd a very fine Harangue, wherein he display'd the great Hopes that were conceived of the young Duke of Chartres; and after it Te Deum was sung, and the Great Guns were fired: In the Evening the Officers gave a magnificent Entertainment, which the Prince Emanuel of Portugal honoured with his Presence; and there was a Table spread for 150 Guests, in one of the Halls of the Town-House, which was served by the Colonel of the Regiment and the Major-Domo of the Queen Dowager of Spain. After the Repast was over the Company retired into another Room finely illuminated, where the young Duke opened the Ball, and danced with several Ladies. The Queen Dowager, who came to be a Spectator, was saluted by a great Discharge from the Artillery, and the Officers gave Plenty of Wine to the Soldiers of the Regiment.

The Amsterdam Merchants have received Letters from Ispahan, dated the 3d of March last, which destroy the various Reports relating to Kouli-Kan, the new Monarch of Persia's Parentage and Country: For instead of his being an Englishman, an Irishman, a Scotchman, a Frenchman, or a Fleming, as has been differently given out; these Letters say, that he is a Persian, born at Afcheir, in the Province of Chorazan, formerly called Bactriana, and that his Father was no more than a Shepherd.

The Directors of the Dutch East-India Company have received Advice of the safe Arrival of 16 of their homeward-bound Ships, in the Texel and the Maese; viz. 13 from Batavia, 2 from Bengal, and 1 from Mocha.

Athlone, in Ireland, June 11. This being the Accession of his present Majesty to the Throne, four Companies of Col. Wentworth's Regiment of Foot, join'd by a Troop of Lieut. Gen. Napier's Horse, were drawn out, and after having fir'd several Volleys, the Officers of the Garison went to the three Blacks, where their Majesties and all the Royal Family, the immortal Memory of King William, their respective Colonels, and several other loyal Healths were drank, and the Evening concluded with a splendid Ball given by the Officers to the Ladies of the Corporation, with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy.

Last Week were imported from London and enter'd at the Custom-house, four curious COMEDIANS, from the Theatrical Ware-houses of London; the Parcels were mark'd H—y G—d, English; D—s D—y, Irish; R—r B—r, English; A—m H—m, Irish.

It is to be hoped that the Town will receive Consolation from these Commodities, which is now almost inconsolable for the Exportation of Thomas Topham, a Performer most excellent in his Way, and may be said in the strictest Sense to be an ACTOR; and Yesterday fail'd on board his Majesty's Yacht, the aforesaid Thomas Topham, being now setting out for his Progress thro' England.

We hear from Limerick, that a Gentleman in that County made 200 Hogsheads of excellent Cyder, out of the Fruit of his own Orchard.

Derby, June 16. On Saturday the 4th Instant, Charles Walker and Isaac Harrison, both of Billper, five Miles from hence, drinking together at an Ale-house in the said Town, and Words arising betwixt them, Walker took up a Toasting Fork, and struck Harrison over the Head with it, which wounded him so that he died in about four Days after: Walker was immediately secured and committed to our Gaol, in order to be tried for the same at the ensuing Assizes, being found, upon the Coroner's Inquest, guilty of the said Murder.

Norwich, June 18. Last Saturday being the Anniversary of his Majesty's Accession to the Crown, 'twas observed here with great Rejoycings: The Dragoons were under Arms, and performed their Exercise on Tombland; and towards the Evening a large Bonfire was lighted in the Market-Place, to which the Right Worshipful the Mayor and several of the Court came, and drank his Majesty's, and other Loyal Healths; during which Time the Dragoons fir'd several Volleys in a complete Manner: After which the Mayor was pleas'd to invite the Officers to the Hall, and order'd the Dragoons Three Guineas to drink his Majesty's Health, &c. and the Day concluded with Joy and Satisfaction.

The only true Specifick Tincture
For the TOOTH-ACH, and all Disorders and Defects of the TEETH and GUMS whatever, which has given such entire Satisfaction to the Nobility and Gentry for above half Twenty Years past, by its vastly exceeding all other Things, either formerly invented or lately contrived for these Purposes.

SINCE one Drop of it gives infallible and instant Ease in the most tormenting Pain, when nothing else will, and not only takes it away in a Moment, but absolutely cures the TOOTH-ACH, so as certainly to prevent its Return.

At only once using it makes the foulest Teeth most beautifully white, assuredly softens those that are loose, and infallibly preserves the Teeth from growing rotten, and those a little decay'd, from becoming worse: It perfectly cures the Scavry in the Gums, causing them to grow up to the Teeth again to Admiration, and also occasions a Sweet Breath.

It is neither disagreeable to the Smell or Taste, but effectually preserves the Teeth and Gums from all Manner of Foulness, Corruption, and Putrefaction, keeps them sound, good, and in most beautiful Order, and may be depended upon to answer the Character here given of it, literally, and in every Respect, as Persons innumerable have experienced.

But these inimitable Qualities, and solely inherent Virtues, which it has justly gain'd such an universal and unparalleled great character, have occasion'd, as usual in such cases, various and frequent Endeavours to mimic it, some under the same Name, and in the very Words of this Advertisement, and others under other Names; be careful therefore, to have the right, which may be infallibly relied upon, and which is to be had only by the Author's Appointment, of the Gentlewoman, at the Two Blue-Posts, in Haydon-Yard, in the Minories, London, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

Good Allowance to those who take Quantities for Exportation.

The Great Carminative.

A most famous Tincture for the Wind Colick,

IN what Part soever lodged; for at once taking, and in five Minute's Time, it perfectly cures the severest Gripings in the Guts, and immediately expels the Wind from the Stomach or Bowels (as it were) to a Miracle.

For all wandering Pains in any Part soever, which are in some Persons the Forerunners of a fixed Rheumatism, in others the Gout (mistaken many times under the Notion of Scorbutick Ailments) this famous Medicine has not its Fellow, having wrought Wonders in these Cases on great Numbers of People, who, before taking it, could neither sit, stand, nor lie at Ease; but were in intolerable Pain Night and Day, and in taking less than half a Bottle, were absolutely freed from their present Pain, and, by a short Continuance of the Course, recovered to perfect Health again.

As for any Belchings or Hiccups, proceeding from Wind, or, in short, in any Case of Wind, it may be depended on as the best, safest, most expeditious, and most sovereign Remedy ever yet known.

It is sold only at Mr. King's Picture Shop in the Poultry, near the Royal Exchange, and at Mr. Martin's Toy-Shop, the Sign of the Three Rabbits near Durham-yard, in the Strand, at 3 s. the Bottle.

By the said Mr. King and Mr. Martin is also sold for 3 s. the Bottle.

The Princely beautifying LOTION.

Whose INIMITABLE VIRTUES and TRANSCENDENT EXCELLENCIES have gained it so much Reputation, that envious Imitators endeavour, tho' in vain, to counterfeit it.

It beautifies the Face, Neck, and Hands to the utmost Perfection, and is in the greatest Esteem amongst Ladies, &c. of the first Quality. No Words can sufficiently express its Virtues; for it is not of the Nature of Paint, which puts a false and unnatural Gloss on the Skin; but is a Remedy that, by its Use, really gives a Lustre to the most Beautiful, by showing the fine Features of the Face, and is so safe, not having the least Grain of Mercury in it, that it may be taken inwardly, and it smells too, is really good against Vapours.

It infallibly kills Worms in the Face, takes away Freckles, Spots, Wrinkled Pits, or Marks of the Small-Pox, and assuredly cures any Defects in the Face, giving a charming youthful Lustre and fine Air to the Features, to Admiration.

As for such Persons as are of a swarthy Complexion, or troubled with any disagreeable Redness, Roughness, Morpew, Heats, or the like, it is not to be parallel'd, for it immediately smooths, clears, plumps, nourishes, and whiten the Skin to the last Degree, and makes those Persons who before look'd haggard and old, to look young, beautiful, and fair; and, in short, it far exceeds any thing that was ever yet known or made publick, for clearing and beautifying the Skin.
